

Cispus Challenge Course Scheduling and Fees

Groups are on the course anywhere from a half-day (three hours) to two days. Occasionally, groups will use the course for several days during a long stay at Cispus.

We can also pack up our van and bring the course to you. Several organizations prefer this as a way to avoid their traveling costs.

Fees

The cost for a day on the Challenge Course depends on the number of people in your group and the type of day you want.

- A day on the group (low) course costs $125 base fee plus $11.25 per person.
- A half day on the group course is $125 base fee plus $6.25 per person.

Many groups use our course each year, and some groups take advantage of our volunteer system to train facilitators from their own school or organization. This provides each group with a facilitator who is more aware of special group needs and reduces costs.
