From Highway 167 (near Auburn)

Take the Highway 512 exit to Puyallup. From 512 take the Puyallup/South Hill exit. Follow to Eatonville. At the intersection in Eatonville, turn left and continue to Alder Lake. Turn left onto Highway 7 and continue through Elbe. Turn right on the Nisqually River bridge and continue to Morton. Follow through town to Highway 12. Turn left (east) and continue to Randle (see below).

From Interstate 5

Take exit 68 (Highway 12: White Pass, Yakima), head east and follow toward Morton. Continue to Randle (see below).

From Eastern Washington

Take highway 410 outside of Yakima and continue through Naches. Turn left (west) onto highway 12 and continue over White Pass to Randle (see below).

From Randle

Turn south onto Cispus Road (Highway 131 toward Mt. St. Helens). After approximately a mile, follow Forest Road #23 to the left (also called Cispus Road). The rest of the way is well marked by brown Forest Service signs on the right hand side of the road. From Randle, the center is 11 miles away.
