WASC Membership Benefits

There are many benefits to your student council as a result of joining WASC. Your affiliation fee supports many services of the Washington Student Leadership Program, and allows your school to take advantage of some special programs.

1

Priority status and discounts on leadership training programs for student leaders, including Washington State Summer Leadership Camps for students in middle level and high schools, Summer CheerLeadership Camps, the Annual WASC Leadership Conference, and Middle Level Regional Workshops.

2

Subscription to In the Loop, our electronic newsletter. Each issue highlights upcoming program opportunities, practical activities, useful student leadership Web sites, timely tips and an inspirational quote.

3

Access to a variety of leadership resources available through the Washington Student Leadership Program. Timely communication regarding our innovative programs such as the emerging Latino student outreach activities and elementary leadership. Copies of special publications produced during the year. A "live" person to talk with each time you call our office, or a timely response when leaving a phone message.

4

Discounts on training programs for activity advisers that are sponsored by the Washington Student Leadership Program.

5

Eligibility for representation on the WASC Board through a Local Association of Student Councils. This eligibility is available to high school members only.

6

Eligibility for WASC Recognition and Award programs, including Adviser of the Year and Council Award of Excellence.

8

Improved communication through direct contact with a schools identified student leadership advisers.
