Who should attend Leadership Camp?

Middle Level Leadership Camp is open to...

- students enrolled in middle schools or junior highs entering grades 7, 8 or 9; and...
- students holding elected offices or students with an interest in developing leadership skills; and...
- students who are part of the official school delegation.

What curriculum is covered?

Middle Level Camp is a unique leadership experience designed specifically for middle level students. The staff is composed of enthusiastic, highly trained, and dedicated teachers, counselors, administrators and college students. The curriculum is based on the goals and objectives of Washington Student Leadership.

Through large group and small group activities, students learn a variety of useful skills that will help them in their development as positive school leaders. Some of the topics include:

- Communication Skills
- Positive Teamwork
- Problem Solving
- Decision Making
- Involving Others in Your School
- Successful Meeting Skills
- Organizing Yourself

Where is Leadership Camp?

Three sessions are held at Cispus Learning Center, 12 miles southeast of Randle, Washington, in the Gifford Pinchot National Forest and one session is held at Chewelah Peak Learning Center, approximately one hour north of Spokane near the 49 Degrees North ski resort. Both facilities are operated by the Association of Washington School Principals. Family-style meals are served in the dining hall and delegates are housed in dorms.

Why should I attend?

Positive, trained, student leaders make a difference. School principals believe this...that is why they sponsor the programs of Washington Student Leadership. Since 1956, Washington's student leaders have been attending "Leadership Camp." You'll find past delegates still leading in business, education, government and communities. Make a difference for yourself and your school, register for Leadership Camp now!

Middle Level Leadership Mission Statement

1. The camp experience is inclusive, energizing and structured.
2. The curriculum, and its emphasis on the experiential learning process, encourages students to maximize their potential.
3. The camp staff teaches and models lifelong leadership and social skills.

Registration Reminders:

- Please register students who can commit to their camp session from start to finish! All camps start at noon on day one and conclude at noon on the final day.
- Delegates must be enrolled in middle schools or junior highs entering grades 7, 8 or 9.
- Use the Registration Details enclosed to make sure you have completed each step of the process for registering your students for camp. Delegate Forms should be mailed as a packet from the adviser BY JUNE 15.
